Robin O. Harris papers, Special Collections, Ina Dillard Russell Library, Georgia College.
Harris' M.A. thesis entitled "Julia Anna Flisch: Georgia Educator and Feminist" was completed in 1993 and is housed in Special Collections. She completed her Ph.D. in History and Sociology at Georgia Institute of Technology from 1996-2008. Her dissertation was also on Flisch and is titled "'A new representative of southern intellect: 'Julia Anna Flisch, a new woman of the New South." She returned to Georgia College in 2001 to teach Historical Sociology. She is now a Professor Emeritus in the Department of Government and Sociology.

Scope and Contents

The Robin O. Harris papers comprises one box (0.5 cubic feet) of materials taken from Harris' additions to the Julia A. Flisch papers. These materials include papers written and presented by Harris, exhibits on Flisch curated by Harris, and research done by Harris for her Master's Thesis and Dissertation on Flisch.

The collection comprises one series: Julia A. Flisch research. Within this series, there are two subseries: Papers and Exhibits and Research.

Subseries 1a, Papers and Exhibits, includes full text copies of papers written, published, and presented by Harris on Flisch at conferences across Georgia and the Southeast. It also includes papers written for non-academic settings such as museum exhibits and newspaper write ups. Also of note in this subseries is the original collection guide for the Julia A. Flisch papers and Dr. Harris' materials for her nomination of Flisch to the Georgia Women of Achievement board.

Subseries 1b, Research, includes correspondence, photographs, interview responses, and other notes surrounding Harris' research.

Arrangement

Materials taken from Julia A. Flisch papers with slightly altered arrangement. Series 1 comprises 0.5 cubic feet and contains research on Julia A. Flisch. Subseries 1a comprises 0.25 cubic feet and comprises papers written by Harris on Flisch and subseries 1b comprises 0.25 cubic feet and comprises research completed by Harris on Flisch.
