Victorian Era Test

Read the instructions carefully and answer the following questions:

Fill in the blank
Fill in the blank for the following questions.

1. Who was the queen during the Victorian era? _________________

2. What country did the queen rule? ______________________

Multiple choice
Circle the best choice to answer the following questions.

3. In what year did the Victorian era start?
   a. 1730
   b. 1837
   c. 1935

4. What is the best description of parody (in theatre)?
   a. When the actors do nothing but sing
   b. When the actors make fun of themselves or a topic
   c. When the actors don't use any words

5. Who of the following was a very important author in children's literature during the Victorian era?
   a. Beatrix Potter
   b. William Shakespeare
   c. J.K. Rowling

True or false
Decide whether the following statements are true or false and write your answer in the blank.

6. __________ The Victorian culture did not affect other countries.

7. __________ Fashion was important in the Victorian era.

8. __________ Women in the Victorian era spent a lot of time sewing.

9. __________ Most people did not drink tea in the Victorian era because there was a supply shortage.

10. __________ When the queen ruled in the Victorian era there were no wars going on.

Fun fact:
In the Victorian era, if a man called a woman by her first name, it was the same thing as proposing to her! The proper way to address a single lady was by saying “Ms.”