SEC. XI. Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That ^{Board of Directors} the Board of Directors shall appoint a President and Professors of ^{appoint officers and provide rules and regulations.} said college and such other officers as they think proper, and shall make such laws, rules and regulations for the government of said college, its officers, students and employes as they may deem advisable. They shall divide the course of study and instruction into departments, so as to secure thorough education and the best possible instruction. Said Directors shall regulate the rates of tuition, together with the course of discipline necessary to enforce the faithful discharge of the duties of all officers, professors and students.

SEC. XII. Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That ^{Quota of scholars from counties.} said Board of Directors shall apportion to each county its quota of the scholars which can be received into said college on the basis of the white population (according to the United States census taken just preceding each appointment) in the State and several counties; Provided, That each county shall be entitled at least to one scholarship in said college. After giving notice for not less than two ^{How selected.} weeks, the Board of Education in each county shall ascertain which of the applicants from their respective counties are qualified to enter said college, and select from those so qualified to enter those to be sent from their respective counties, and certify such selections to the President of the Georgia Normal and Industrial College. Such appointments shall be made under the regulations prescribed by said ^{Disposition of scholarships.} Board of Directors, who shall also provide for the disposition of scholarships not taken by the counties entitled to them. In all selections of scholars preference shall be given to the daughters of deceased and disabled Confederate soldiers who are otherwise unable to secure a thorough education.
